Individuals can find out if we hold any personal information by making a 'subject access request' under the Data Protection Act 1998. If we do hold information about you we will:

- give you a description of it;
- tell you why we are holding it;
- tell you who it could be disclosed to; and
- let you have a copy of the information in an intelligible form.

To make a request to WQA for any personal information we may hold you need to put the request in writing addressing it to the Managing Director at:

Worldwide Quality Assurance Limited
Severn House,
Mandale Business Park,
Durham,
DH1 1TH

If we do hold information about you, you can ask us to correct any mistakes by, once again, contacting the Managing Director at the above address.

You can also get further information on:

- agreements we have with other organisations for sharing information;
- circumstances where we can pass on personal data without consent for example, to prevent and detect crime;
- our instructions to staff on how to collect, use and delete personal data; and
- how we check that the information we hold is accurate and up to date.

All access requests will be acknowledged and a response provided within 30 calendar days from receiving the request. Relevant and reasonable requests for information will be provided free of charge.

Should the request become excessive and require excessive administrative time, a cost may be applied to the request.
